The source of the real car is not a fake one. I am a Lynk & Co professional, Lynk & Co second-hand car dealer, and I have always taken good care of my private car. The condition of the car is fine, and it is a truly cost-effective model. The Lynk & Co 02HB driving control version is a young, fashionable and classic model. The new car costs more than 200,000 yuan, which is indeed more practical in all aspects. It has power and the fuel consumption is not high. The whole car has no accident defects, the inside and outside are new, and it is a cost-effective model. If you like it, you can contact us directly. You are welcome to see the car in person and test drive it. The car supports mortgages and low down payments. Support cooperation with third-party inspections and vehicle inspections, and promises no major accidents, no fires, no blisters, and three times the compensation for fakes. Let you buy with confidence and choose a used car
